You should read, understand, and comply with all provisions of the handbook. It describes many of your responsibilities as an employee and outlines the programs developed by Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. to benefit employees. One of our objectives is to provide a work environment that is conducive to both personal and professional growth.

No employee handbook can anticipate every circumstance or question about policy. As Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. continues to grow, the need may arise and Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. reserves the right to revise, supplement, or rescind any policies or portion of the handbook from time to time as it deems appropriate, in its sole and absolute discretion. Employees will be notified of such changes to the handbook as they occur.

1.3 CUSTOMER RELATIONS

Customers are among our organization's most valuable assets. Every employee represents Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. to our customers and the public. The way we do our jobs presents an image of our entire organization. Customers judge all of us by how they are treated with each employee contact. Therefore, one of our first business priorities is to assist any customer or potential customer. Nothing is more important than being courteous, friendly, helpful, and prompt in the attention you give to customers.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. will provide customer relations and services training to all employees with extensive customer contact. Customers who wish to lodge specific comments or complaints should be directed to the Vice President of Operation Allan A.Oziran for appropriate action. Our personal contact with the public, our manners on the telephone, and the communications we send to customers are a reflection not only of ourselves, but also of the professionalism of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. Positive customer relations not only enhance the public's perception or image of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc., but also pay off in greater customer loyalty and increased sales and profit.
2. THE EMPLOYMENT

2.1 NATURE OF EMPLOYMENT

Employment with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is voluntarily entered into, and the employee is free to resign at any time, with or without cause. Similarly, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. may terminate the employment relationship at will at any time, with or without notice or cause, so long as there is no violation of applicable federal or State law.

Policies set forth in this handbook are not intended to create a contract, nor are they to be construed to constitute contractual obligations of any kind or a contract of employment between Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. and any of its employees. The provisions of the handbook have been developed at the discretion of management and, except for its policy of employment-at-will, may be amended or cancelled at any time, at Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. sole discretion.

These provisions supersede all existing policies and practices and may not be amended or added to without the express written approval of Management of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc.

2.2 EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. believes that the work conditions, wages, and benefits it offers to its employees are competitive with those offered by other employers in this area and in this industry. If employees have concerns about work conditions or compensation, they are strongly encouraged to voice these concerns openly and directly to their supervisors.

Our experience has shown that when employees deal openly and directly with supervisors, the work environment can be excellent, communications can be clear, and attitudes can be positive. We believe that Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. amply demonstrates its commitment to employees by responding effectively to employee concerns.

In an effort to protect and maintain direct employer/employee communications, we will do anything we can to protect the right of employees to speak for them.

2.3 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions at Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. will be based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or any other characteristic protected by law.

This policy governs all aspects of employment, including selection, job assignment, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits and training.

Any employees with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
2.4 BUSINESS ETHICS AND CONDUCT

The successful business operation and reputation of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is built upon the principles of fair dealing and ethical conduct of our employees. Our reputation for integrity and excellence requires careful observance of the spirit and letter of all applicable laws and regulations, as well as a scrupulous regard for the highest standards of conduct and personal integrity.

The continued success of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is dependent upon our customers' trust and we are dedicated to preserving that trust. Employees owe a duty to Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc., its customers, and shareholders to act in a way that will merit the continued trust and confidence of the public.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. will comply with all applicable laws and regulations and expects its directors, officers, and employees to conduct business in accordance with the letter, spirit, and intent of all relevant laws and to refrain from any illegal, dishonest, or unethical conduct.

In general, the use of good judgment, based on high ethical principles, will guide you with respect to lines of acceptable conduct. If a situation arises where it is difficult to determine the proper course of action, the matter should be discussed openly with your immediate supervisor and, if necessary, with the President, Faye Oziran, for advice and consultation.

Compliance with this policy of business ethics and conduct is the responsibility of every Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. employee. Disregarding or failing to comply with this standard of business ethics and conduct could lead to disciplinary action, up to and including possible termination of employment.

2.5 PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS IN THE WORKPLACE

The employment of relatives or individuals involved in a dating relationship in the same area of an organization may cause serious conflicts and problems with favoritism and employee morale. In addition to claims of partiality in treatment at work, personal conflicts from outside the work environment can be carried over into day-to-day working relationships.

For purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. A dating relationship is defined as a relationship that may be reasonably expected to lead to the formation of a consensual "romantic" or sexual relationship. This policy applies to all employees without regard to the gender or sexual orientation of the individuals involved.

Although Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. has no prohibition against employing relatives of current employees or individuals involved in a dating relationship with current employees, we are committed to monitoring situations in which such relationships exist in the same area. In case of actual or potential problems, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. will take prompt action, and this can include reassignment. Employees in a close personal relationship should refrain from public workplace displays of affection or excessive personal conversation.

2.6 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Employees have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. This policy establishes only the framework within which Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. wishes the business to operate. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide general direction so that employees can seek further clarification on issues related to the subject of acceptable standards of operation. Contact the President for more information or questions about conflicts of interest.
Transactions with outside firms must be conducted within a framework established and controlled by the executive level of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. Business dealings with outside firms should not result in unusual gains for those firms. Unusual gain refers to bribes, product bonuses, special fringe benefits, unusual price breaks, and other windfalls designed to ultimately benefit the employer, the employee, or both. Promotional plans that could be interpreted to involve unusual gain require specific executive-level approval.

An actual or potential conflict of interest occurs when an employee is in a position to influence a decision that may result in a personal gain for that employee or for a relative because of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage.

No “presumption of guilt” is created by the mere existence of a relationship with outside firms. However, if employees have any influence on transactions involving purchases, contracts, or leases, it is imperative that they disclose to an officer of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. as soon as possible the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest so that safeguards can be established to protect all parties.

Personal gain may result not only in cases where an employee or relative has a significant ownership in a firm with which Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. does business, but also when an employee or relative receives any kickback, bribe, substantial gift, or special consideration as a result of any transaction or business dealings involving Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc..

2.7 OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees may hold outside jobs as long as they meet the performance standards of their job with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. All employees will be judged by the same performance standards and will be subject to Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. scheduling demands, regardless of any existing outside work requirements.

If Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. determines that an employee's outside work interferes with performance or the ability to meet the requirements of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. as they are modified from time to time, the employee may be asked to terminate the outside employment if he or she wishes to remain with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc.

Outside employment that constitutes a conflict of interest is prohibited. Employees may not receive any income or material gain from individuals outside Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. for materials produced or services rendered while performing their jobs.

2.8 NON-DISCLOSURE

The protection of confidential business information and trade secrets is vital to the interests and the success of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. Such confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

- Compensation data
- Computer processes
- Computer programs and codes
- Customer lists
- Customer preferences
- Financial information
- Labor relations strategies
- Marketing strategies
- New materials research
- Pending projects and proposals
- Proprietary production processes
- Research and development strategies
- Scientific data
- Scientific formulae
- Scientifique prototypes
- Technological data
- Technological prototypes
All employees are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement as a condition of employment. Employees who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment and legal action, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

2.9 DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is ensuring equal opportunity in employment for qualified persons with disabilities. All employment practices and activities are conducted on a non-discriminatory basis.

Hiring procedures have been reviewed and provide persons with disabilities meaningful employment opportunities. Upon request, job applications are available in alternative, accessible formats, as is assistance in completing the application. Pre-employment inquiries are made only regarding an applicant's ability to perform the duties of the position.

Reasonable accommodation is available to all disabled employees, where their disability affects the performance of job functions. All employment decisions are based on the merits of the situation in accordance with defined criteria, not the disability of the individual.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are entitled to equal pay and other forms of compensation (or changes in compensation) as well as in job assignments, classifications, organizational structures, position descriptions, lines of progression and seniority lists. Leave of all types will be available to all employees on an equal basis.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is also committed to not discriminating against any qualified employees or applicants because they are related to or associated with a person with a disability. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. will follow any provincial or local law that provides individuals with disabilities greater protection.

This policy is neither exhaustive nor exclusive. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is committed to taking all other actions necessary to ensure equal employment opportunity for persons with disabilities in accordance with all applicable federal, provincial, and local laws.

2.10 JOB POSTING AND EMPLOYEE REFERRALS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. provides employees an opportunity to indicate their interest in open positions and advance within the organization according to their skills and experience. In general, notices of all regular, full-time job openings are posted, although Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. reserves its discretionary right to not post a particular opening.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. recognizes the benefit of developmental experiences and encourages employees to talk with their supervisors about their career plans. Supervisors are encouraged to support employees’ efforts to gain experience and advance within the organization.

An applicant’s supervisor may be contacted to verify performance, skills, and attendance. Any staffing limitations or other circumstances that might affect a prospective transfer may also be discussed.

Job posting is a way to inform employees of openings and to identify qualified and interested applicants who might not otherwise be known to the hiring manager. Other recruiting sources may also be used to fill open positions in the best interest of the organization.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. also encourages employees to identify friends or acquaintances that are interested in employment opportunities and refer qualified outside applicants for posted jobs. Employees should obtain permission from the individual before making a referral, share their knowledge of the organization, and not make commitments or oral promises of employment.

An employee should submit the referral's resume and/or completed application form to the Management for a posted job. If the referral is interviewed, the referring employee will be notified of the initial interview and the final selection decision.
3. EMPLOYMENT STATUS AND RECORDS

3.1 EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

It is the intent of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. to clarify the definitions of employment classifications so that employees understand their employment status and benefit eligibility.

Each employee is designated as either NONEXEMPT or EXEMPT from federal and provincial wage and hour laws. NONEXEMPT employees are entitled to overtime pay under the specific provisions of federal and provincial laws. EXEMPT employees are excluded from specific provisions of federal and provincial wage and hour laws. An employee's EXEMPT or NONEXEMPT classification may be changed only upon written notification by Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. management.

In addition to the above categories, each employee will belong to one other employment category:

- REGULAR FULL-TIME employees are those who are not in a temporary or probation status and who are regularly scheduled to work Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. full-time schedule. Generally, they are eligible for Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. to work overtime.

- REGULAR PART-TIME employees are those who are not assigned to a temporary or probation status and who are regularly scheduled to work less than 28 hours per week. While they do receive all legally mandated benefits (such as Social Security and unemployment insurance), they are ineligible for all of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. overtime.

- PROBATION is those whose performance is being evaluated to determine whether further employment in a specific position or with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is appropriate. Employees who satisfactorily complete the probation period will be notified of their new employment classification.

- CONTRACTUAL employees are those who are hired as interim replacements, to temporarily supplement the work force, or to assist in the completion of a specific project. Employment assignments in this category are of a limited duration. Employment beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status. Temporary employees retain that status unless and until notified of a change.

- CASUAL employees are those who have established an employment relationship with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. but who are assigned to work on an intermittent and/or unpredictable basis.

3.2 ACCESS TO PERSONNEL FILES

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. maintains a personnel file on each employee. The personnel file includes such information as the employee's job application, resume, records of training, documentation of performance appraisals and salary increases, and other employment records.

Personnel files are the property of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc., and access to the information they contain is restricted. Generally, only supervisors and management personnel of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. who have a legitimate reason to review information in a file are allowed to do so.

3.3 PERSONNEL DATA CHANGES

It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. of any changes in personnel data. Personal mailing addresses, telephone numbers, number and names of dependents, individuals to be contacted in the event of emergency, educational accomplishments, and other such status reports should be accurate and current at all times. If any personnel data has changed, notify the Management.
3.4 PROBATION PERIOD

The probation period is intended to give new employees the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to achieve a satisfactory level of performance and to determine whether the new position meets their expectations. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. uses this period to evaluate employee capabilities, work habits, and overall performance.

All new and rehired employees work on a probation basis for the first 90 calendar days after their date of hire. Any significant absence will automatically extend the probation period by the length of the absence. If Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. determines that the designated probation period does not allow sufficient time to thoroughly evaluate the employee's performance, the probation period may be extended for a specified period.

Upon satisfactory completion of the probation period, employees enter the "regular" employment classification.

During the probation period, new employees are eligible for those benefits that are required by law.

3.5 EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. relies upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application, as well as the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or data may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

3.6 PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Supervisors and employees are strongly encouraged to discuss job performance and goals on an informal, day-to-day basis. Additional formal performance evaluations are conducted to provide both supervisors and employees the opportunity to discuss job tasks, identify and correct weaknesses, encourage and recognize strengths, and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting goals.

After the employee has completed his probation period of 3 months, the immediate supervisor evaluates the performance of the employee and makes necessary adjustments if necessary.
3.7 JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. makes every effort to create and maintain accurate job descriptions for all positions within the organization. Each description includes a job information section, a job summary section (giving a general overview of the job's purpose), an essential duties and responsibilities section, a supervisory responsibilities section, a qualifications section (including education and/or experience, language skills, mathematical skills, reasoning ability, and any certification required), a physical demands section, and a work environment section.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. maintains job descriptions to aid in orienting new employees to their jobs, identifying the requirements of each position, establishing hiring criteria, setting standards for employee performance evaluations, and establishing a basis for making reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities.

The Management and the hiring manager prepare job descriptions when new positions are created. Existing job descriptions are also reviewed and revised in order to ensure that they are up to date. Job descriptions may also be rewritten periodically to reflect any changes in the position's duties and responsibilities. All employees will be expected to help ensure that their job descriptions are accurate and current, reflecting the work being done.

Employees should remember that job descriptions do not necessarily cover every task or duty that might be assigned, and that additional responsibilities may be assigned as necessary. Contact the Management if you have any questions or concerns about your job description.

3.8 SALARY ADMINISTRATION

The salary administration program at Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. was created to achieve consistent pay practices, comply with federal and provincial laws, mirror our commitment to Equal Employment Opportunity, and offer competitive salaries within our labor market. Because recruiting and retaining talented employees is critical to our success, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is committed to paying its employees equitable wages that reflect the requirements and responsibilities of their positions and are comparable to the pay received by similarly situated employees in other organizations in the area.

Compensation for every position is determined by several factors, including job analysis and evaluation, the essential duties and responsibilities of the job, and salary survey data on pay practices of other employers. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. periodically reviews its salary administration program and restructures it as necessary. Merit-based pay adjustments may be awarded in conjunction with superior employee performance documented by the performance evaluation process.

Employees should bring their pay-related questions or concerns to the attention of their immediate supervisors, who are responsible for the fair administration of departmental pay practices. The accounting department is also available to answer specific questions about the salary administration program.
4. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PROGRAMS

4.1 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Eligible employees at Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. are provided a limited range of benefits. A number of the programs (such as unemployment insurance) cover all employees in the manner prescribed by law including overtime pay.

4.2 VACATION BENEFITS

Non Paid annual vacation is available to eligible employees to provide opportunities for rest, relaxation, and personal pursuits.

Non Paid vacation time can be used in minimum increments of one day. To take vacation, employees should request advance approval from their supervisors. Requests will be reviewed based on a number of factors, including business needs and staffing requirements.

Vacation time off is not paid.

4.3 HOLIDAYS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. will grant holiday time off without paid to all employees on the national holidays unless voluntarily wheeling to work if needed will be paid at regular pay scale.

4.4 WORKERS INSURANCE

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. provides [BASIC EMPLOYMENT INSURANCE] insurance program at no cost to employees. This program covers any injury or illness sustained in the course of employment that requires medical, surgical, or hospital treatment. Subject to applicable legal requirements, workers' compensation insurance provides benefits after a short waiting period or, if the employee is hospitalized, immediately.

Employees who sustain work-related injuries or illnesses should inform their supervisor immediately. No matter how minor an on-the-job injury may appear, it is important that it be reported immediately. This will enable an eligible employee to qualify for coverage as quickly as possible.

Neither Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. nor the insurance carrier will be liable for the payment of workers' compensation benefits for injuries that occur during an employee's voluntary participation in any off-duty recreational, social, or athletic activity sponsored by Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc.
4.5 SICK LEAVE BENEFITS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is not provides paid sick leave benefits to all employees.

Employees who are unable to report to work due to illness or injury should notify their direct supervisor before the scheduled start of their workday if possible. The direct supervisor must also be contacted on each additional day of absence. If an employee is absent for three or more consecutive days due to illness or injury, a physician's statement may need to be provided verifying the disability and its beginning and expected ending dates. Such verification may be requested for other sick leave absences as well and may be required as a condition to continue employment.

4.6 BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Employees who require taking without pay time off due to the death of an immediate family member should notify their supervisor immediately.

Bereavement leave will normally be granted unless there are unusual business needs or staffing requirements.

4.12 MARRIAGE, MATERNITY AND PARENTAL LEAVE

Not Applicable

MATERNITY LEAVE ADMISSIBILITY

The employee is entitled to a maternity leave according to:
Current Government legislation entitles employees to a combined Maternity/Parental leave, without pay, of up to 52 weeks. However, during this leave of absence, employees may be eligible to receive.
Notice:
   a) The employee must provide in writing to the company, at least three weeks in advance the date of the beginning of her maternity leave and the date envisaged of her return to work. A medical certificate attesting of the date envisaged of the birth must accompany the notice.
   b) The notice can be less than 3 weeks if the medical certificate attests need for the employee to cease working within a less time. If physical dangers are possible, the employee will be assigned to other tasks while preserving the rights and preferences connected to her regular position.

Complications:
If the employee or the child suffers from complications preventing the return to work at the end of the maternity leave, the employee will have to forward a medical certificate to the company. The employee will be entitled to a prolongation of her maternity leave, which can reach a 52 weeks maximum including the parental leave.

Return to work:
   a) The employee must provide in writing to management the expected date of her return to work and this, three (3) weeks before returning from his maternity leave or parental.
   b) The employee who does not present himself to work five (5) days after the expiration of his maternity leave or parental leave may be known to have resigned.
   c) The direction can require of the employee who returns to work two (2) weeks after her childbirth, the production of a medical certificate attesting of its sufficient re-establishment to resume work.
   d) At the end of its maternity leave, or parental leave not exceeding 12 weeks, the employee will be reinstalled in her regular function and it will be entitled to all the advantages of which it would have profited if she had remained with work.
   e) If the regular job of the employee does not exist any more on her return, the direction will recognize all the rights and preferences that she would have profited at the time from disappearance of her job if she had then been with work.

Miscarriage:
   a) In the event of miscarriage, the employee as soon as possible must deliver to the direction a notice accompanied by a medical certificate attesting of the miscarriage or the urgency.
   b) When a danger of miscarriage requires a stop of work, the employee is entitled to a special maternity leave of the duration prescribed by the medical certificate, which attests existing danger.
   c) When occurs a miscarriage before the beginning of the twentieth (20th) week preceding the date envisaged of the childbirth, the employee is entitled to a sick leave.
   d) If an employee is confined of a child dead-born after the twentieth (20th) week preceding the date envisaged of the birth, she is entitled to the maternity leave of eighteen (18) weeks.

Special maternity leave:
When there is a danger of miscarriage, or a danger to the health of the mother or of the child to come caused by pregnancy and requiring a stop of work, the employee is entitled to a special maternity leave of the duration prescribed by the medical certificate which attests existing danger and which indicates the date envisaged of the childbirth.

Preventive withdrawal:
When there is a danger of miscarriage, or a danger to the health of the mother or the child to come caused by the working conditions, the employee must ask to be assigned to tasks not involving such dangers. If the direction cannot offer other tasks, the employee can then make the request for a preventive withdrawal. The maternity leave will then begin at the date envisaged from the childbirth.

5. TIMEKEEPING / PAYROLL

5.1 TIMEKEEPING
Accurately recording time worked is the responsibility of every nonexempt employee. Federal and state/provincial laws require Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. to keep an accurate record of time worked. Time worked is all the time actually spent on the job performing assigned duties.

Altering, falsifying, tampering with time records, or recording time on another employee's time record may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

If corrections or modifications are made to the time record, both the employee and the supervisor must verify the accuracy of the changes by initialing the time record.

5.2 PAYDAYS

All employees are paid Bi-Weekly on every other Friday OF THE WEEK. Each paycheck will include earnings for all work performed through the end of the previous payroll period.

In the event that a regularly scheduled payday falls on a day off such as a weekend or holiday, employees will receive pay on the last day of work before the regularly scheduled payday.

Employees may have pay directly deposited into their bank accounts if they provide advance written authorization to Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc... Employees will receive an itemized statement of wages when Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. makes direct deposits.

5.3 EMPLOYMENT TERMINATION

Termination of employment is an inevitable part of personnel activity within any organization, and many of the reasons for termination are routine. Below are examples of some of the most common circumstances under which employment is terminated:

- Resignation - voluntary employment termination initiated by an employee.
- Discharge - involuntary employment termination initiated by the organization.
- Layoff - involuntary employment termination initiated by the organization for non-disciplinary reasons.
- Retirement - voluntary employment termination initiated by the employee meeting age, length of service, and any other criteria for retirement from the organization.

5.4 ADMINISTRATIVE PAY CORRECTIONS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. takes all reasonable steps to ensure that employees receive the correct amount of pay in each paycheck and that employees are paid promptly on the scheduled payday.

In the unlikely event that there is an error for pay, the employee should promptly bring the discrepancy to the attention of the Management so that corrections can be made as quickly as possible.
6. WORK CONDITIONS AND HOURS

6.1 WORK SCHEDULES

The normal work schedule for all employees is 8 hours a day, Monday to Friday. Supervisors will advise employees of the times their schedules will normally begin and end. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in starting and ending times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be scheduled each day and week.

Flexible scheduling, or flextime, is available in some cases to allow employees to vary their starting and ending times each day within established limits. Flextime may be possible if a mutually workable schedule can be negotiated with the supervisor involved. However, such issues as staffing needs, the employee's performance, and the nature of the job will be considered before approval of flextime. Employees should consult their supervisor to request participation in the flextime program.

6.2 USE OF PHONE AND MAIL SYSTEMS

Personal use of the telephone for long-distance and toll calls is not permitted. Employees should practice discretion when making local personal calls and may be required to reimburse Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. for any charges resulting from their personal use of the telephone.

To ensure effective telephone communications, employees should always use an approved greeting and speak in a courteous and professional manner. Please confirm information received from the caller, and hang up only after the caller has done so.

6.3 SMOKING

In keeping with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. intent to provide a safe and healthful work environment, smoking is prohibited throughout the workplace.

This policy applies equally to all employees, customers, and visitors.

6.4 MEAL PERIODS

All employees are provided with one meal period of 30 minutes in length each workday. Supervisors will schedule meal periods to accommodate operating requirements. Employees will be relieved of all active responsibilities and restrictions during meal periods and will not be compensated for that time.

6.5 OVERTIME

When operating requirements or other needs cannot be met during regular working hours, employees will be given the opportunity to volunteer for overtime work assignments. All overtime work must receive the supervisor's prior authorization. Overtime assignments will be distributed as equitably as practical to all employees qualified to perform the required work.

Overtime compensation is paid to all non-exempt employees in accordance with federal and provincial wage and hour restrictions. Overtime pay is based on actual hours worked. Time off on sick leave, vacation leave, or any leave of absence will not be considered hours worked for purposes of performing overtime calculations. Failure to work scheduled overtime or overtime worked without prior authorization from the supervisor may result in disciplinary action, up to and including possible termination of employment.
6.6 USE OF EQUIPMENT

Equipment essential in accomplishing job duties is often expensive and may be difficult to replace. When using property, employees are expected to exercise care, perform required maintenance, and follow all operating instructions, safety standards, and guidelines.

Please notify the supervisor if any equipment, machines, or tools appear to be damaged, defective, or in need to have a repair. Prompt reporting of damages, defects, and the need for repairs could prevent deterioration of equipment and possible injury to employees or others. The supervisor can answer any questions about an employee's responsibility for maintenance and care of equipment used on the job.

The improper, careless, negligent, destructive, or unsafe use or operation of equipment can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

6.7 EMERGENCY CLOSING

At times, emergencies such as severe weather, fires or power failures, can disrupt company operations. In extreme cases, these circumstances may require the closing of a work facility.

When operations are officially closed due to emergency conditions, the time off from scheduled work will be unpaid.

In cases where an emergency closing is not authorized, employees who fail to report for work will not be paid for the time off. Employees in essential operations may be asked to work on a day when operations are officially closed. In these circumstances, employees who work will receive regular pay.

6.8 BUSINESS TRAVEL EXPENSES

NOT APPLICABLE

6.9 VISITORS IN THE WORKPLACE

To provide for the safety and security of employees and the facilities at Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc., only authorized visitors are allowed in the workplace. Restricting unauthorized visitors helps maintain safety standards, protects against theft, ensures security of equipment, protects confidential information, safeguards employee welfare, and avoids potential distractions and disturbances.

All visitors should enter Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. at the reception area. Authorized visitors will receive directions or be escorted to their destination. Employees are responsible for the conduct and safety of their visitors.

If an unauthorized individual is observed on Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. premises, employees should immediately notify their supervisor or, if necessary, direct the individual to the reception area.

6.10 COMPUTER AND EMAIL USAGE

Computers, computer files, the email system, and software furnished to employees are Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. property intended for business use. Employees should not use a password, access a file, or retrieve any stored communication without authorization. To ensure compliance with this policy, computer and email usage may be monitored.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. strives to maintain a workplace free of harassment and sensitive to the diversity of its employees. Therefore, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. prohibits the use of computers and the email system in ways that are disruptive, offensive to others, or harmful to morale.

For example, the display or transmission of sexually explicit images, messages, and cartoons is not allowed. Other such misuse includes, but is not limited to, ethnic slurs, racial comments, off-color jokes, or anything that may be construed as harassment or showing disrespect for others.

Email may not be used to solicit others for commercial ventures, religious or political causes, outside organizations, or other non-business matters.
6.11 INTERNET USAGE

Internet access to global electronic information resources on the World Wide Web is provided by Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. to assist employees in obtaining work-related data and technology. The following guidelines have been established to help ensure responsible and productive Internet usage. While Internet usage is intended for job-related activities, incidental and occasional brief personal use is permitted within reasonable limits.

All Internet data that is composed, transmitted, or received via our computer communications systems is considered to be part of the official records of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. and, as such, is subject to disclosure to law enforcement or other third parties. Consequently, employees should always ensure that the business information contained in Internet email messages and other transmissions is accurate, appropriate, ethical, and lawful.

The equipment, services, and technology provided to access the Internet remain at all times the property of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. As such, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. reserves the right to monitor Internet traffic, and retrieve and read any data composed, sent, or received through our online connections and stored in our computer systems.

Data that is composed, transmitted, accessed, or received via the Internet must not contain content that could be considered discriminatory, offensive, obscene, threatening, harassing, intimidating, or disruptive to any employee or other person. Examples of unacceptable content may include, but are not limited to, sexual comments or images, racial slurs, gender-specific comments, or any other comments or images that could reasonably offend someone on the basis of race, age, sex, religious or political beliefs, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected by law.

The unauthorized use, installation, copying, or distribution of copyrighted, trademarked, or patented material on the Internet is expressly prohibited. As a rule, if an employee did not create the material, does not own the rights to it, or has not gotten authorization for its use, it should not be put on the Internet. Employees are also responsible for ensuring that the person sending any material over the Internet has the appropriate distribution rights.

Internet users should take the necessary anti-virus precautions before downloading or copying any file from the Internet. All downloaded files are to be checked for viruses; all compressed files are to be checked before and after decompression.

Abuse of the Internet access provided by Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. in violation of law or Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. policies will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. Employees may also be held personally liable for any violations of this policy. The following behaviors are examples of previously stated or additional actions and activities that are prohibited and can result in disciplinary action:

- Sending or posting discriminatory, harassing, or threatening messages or images
- Using the organization's time and resources for personal gain
- Stealing, using, or disclosing someone else's code or password without authorization
- Copying, pirating, or downloading software and electronic files without permission
- Sending or posting confidential material, trade secrets, or proprietary information outside of the organization
- Violating copyright law
- Failing to observe licensing agreements
- Engaging in unauthorized transactions that may incur a cost to the organization or initiate unwanted Internet services and transmissions
- Sending or posting messages or material that could damage the organization's image or reputation
- Participating in the viewing or exchange of pornography or obscene materials
- Sending or posting messages that defame or slander other individuals
• Attempting to break into the computer system of another organization or person
• Refusing to cooperate with a security investigation
• Sending or posting chain letters, solicitations, or advertisements not related to business purposes or activities
• Using the Internet for political causes or activities, religious activities, or any sort of gambling
• Jeopardizing the security of the organization’s electronic communications systems
• Sending or posting messages that disparage another organization’s products or services
• Passing off personal views as representing those of the organization
• Sending anonymous email messages
• Engaging in any other illegal activities

6.12 WORKPLACE MONITORING

Workplace monitoring may be conducted by Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. to ensure quality control, employee safety, security, and customer satisfaction.

Employees who regularly communicate with customers may have their telephone conversations monitored or recorded. Telephone monitoring is used to identify and correct performance problems through targeted training. Improved job performance enhances our customers' image of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. as well as their satisfaction with our service.

Computers furnished to employees are the property of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. As such, computer usage and files may be monitored or accessed.

Employees can request access to information gathered through workplace monitoring that may impact employment decisions. Access will be granted unless there is a legitimate business reason to protect confidentiality or an ongoing investigation.

Because Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is sensitive to the legitimate privacy rights of employees, every effort will be made to guarantee that workplace monitoring is done in an ethical and respectful manner.
6.13 WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is committed to preventing workplace violence and to maintaining a safe work environment. Given the increasing violence in society in general, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. has adopted the following guidelines to deal with intimidation, harassment, or other threats of (or actual) violence that may occur during business hours or on its premises.

All employees, including supervisors and temporary employees, should be treated with courtesy and respect at all times. Employees are expected to refrain from fighting, “horseplay,” or other conduct that may be dangerous to others.

Conduct that threatens, intimidates, or coerces another employee, a customer, or a member of the public at any time, including off-duty periods, will not be tolerated. This prohibition includes all acts of harassment, including harassment that is based on an individual’s sex, race, age, or any characteristic protected by federal, provincial, or local law.

All threats of (or actual) violence, both direct and indirect, should be reported as soon as possible to your immediate supervisor or any other member of management. This includes threats by employees, as well as threats by customers, vendors, solicitors, or other members of the public. When reporting a threat of violence, you should be as specific and detailed as possible.

All suspicious individuals or activities should also be reported as soon as possible to a supervisor. Do not place yourself in peril. If you see or hear a commotion or disturbance near your workstation, do not try to intercede or see what is happening.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. will promptly and thoroughly investigate all reports of threats of (or actual) violence and of suspicious individuals or activities. The identity of the individual making a report will be protected as much as is practical. In order to maintain workplace safety and the integrity of its investigation, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. may suspend employees, either with or without pay, pending investigation.

Anyone determined to be responsible for threats of (or actual) violence or other conduct that is in violation of these guidelines will be subject to prompt disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. encourages employees to bring their disputes or differences with other employees to the attention of their supervisors or the Management before the situation escalates into potential violence. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is eager to assist in the resolution of employee disputes, and will not discipline employees for raising such concerns.
7. EMPLOYEE CONDUCT & DISCIPLINARY ACTION

7.1 EMPLOYEE CONDUCT AND WORK RULES

To ensure orderly operations and provide the best possible work environment, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. expects employees to follow rules of conduct that will protect the interests and safety of all employees and the organization.

It is not possible to list all the forms of behavior that are considered unacceptable in the workplace. The following are examples of infractions of rules of conduct that may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment:

- Theft or inappropriate removal or possession of property
- Falsification of timekeeping records
- Working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
- Possession, distribution, sale, transfer, or use of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace, while on duty, or while operating employer-owned vehicles or equipment
- Fighting or threatening violence in the workplace
- Boisterous or disruptive activity in the workplace
- Negligence or improper conduct leading to damage of employer-owned or customer-owned property
- Insubordination or other disrespectful conduct
- Violation of safety or health rules
- Sexual or other unlawful or unwelcome harassment
- Possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials, such as explosives or firearms, in the workplace
- Excessive absenteeism or any absence without notice
- Unauthorized use of telephones, mail system, or other employer-owned equipment
- Unauthorized disclosure of business “secrets” or confidential information
- Violation of personnel policies
- Unsatisfactory performance or conduct

7.2 SEXUAL AND OTHER UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is committed to providing a work environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and conduct that can be considered harassing, coercive, or disruptive, including sexual harassment. Actions, words, jokes, or comments based on an individual's sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, or any other legally protected characteristic will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwanted sexual advances, or visual, verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. This definition includes many forms of offensive behavior and includes gender-based harassment of a person of the same sex as the harasser. The following is a partial list of sexual harassment examples:

- Unwanted sexual advances.
- Offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors.
- Making or threatening reprisals after a negative response to sexual advances.
- Visual conduct that includes leering, making sexual gestures, or displaying of sexually suggestive objects or pictures, cartoons or posters.
- Verbal conduct that includes making or using derogatory comments, epithets, slurs, or jokes.
- Verbal sexual advances or propositions.
- Verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal commentaries about an individual's body, sexually degrading words, or suggestive or obscene letters or invitations.
• Physical conduct that includes touching, assaulting, or impeding or blocking movements. Unwelcome sexual advances (either verbal or physical), requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

(1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;
(2) submission or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for making employment decisions; or,
(3) The conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

If you experience or witness sexual or other unlawful harassment in the workplace, report it immediately to your supervisor. If the supervisor is unavailable or you believe it would be inappropriate to contact that person, you should immediately contact the Management. You can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal or retaliation.

All allegations of sexual harassment will be quickly and discreetly investigated. To the extent possible, your confidentiality and that of any witnesses and the alleged harasser will be protected against unnecessary disclosure. When the investigation is completed, you will be informed of the outcome of the investigation.

Any supervisor or manager who becomes aware of possible sexual or other unlawful harassment must immediately advise the any member of management so it can be investigated in a timely and confidential manner. Anyone engaging in sexual or other unlawful harassment will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

7.3 ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

To maintain a safe and productive work environment, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. expects employees to be reliable and to be punctual in reporting for scheduled work. Absenteeism and tardiness place a burden on other employees and on Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc... In the rare instances when employees cannot avoid being late to work or are unable to work as scheduled, they should notify their supervisor as soon as possible in advance of the anticipated tardiness or absence. Poor attendance and excessive tardiness are disruptive. Either may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

7.4 PERSONAL APPEARANCE

Dress, grooming, and personal cleanliness standards contribute to the morale of all employees and affect the business image Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. presents to customers and visitors.

During business hours or when representing Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc., you are expected to present a clean, neat, and tasteful appearance. You should dress and groom yourself according to the requirements of your position and accepted social standards. This is particularly true if your job involves dealing with customers or visitors in person.

Your supervisor or department head is responsible for establishing a reasonable dress code appropriate to the job you perform. Consult your supervisor if you have questions as to what constitutes appropriate appearance. Where necessary, reasonable accommodation may be made to a person with a disability.
Without unduly restricting individual tastes, the following personal appearance guidelines should be followed:

- Unnaturally colored hair and extreme hairstyles, such as spiked hair and shaved heads, do not present an appropriate professional appearance.
- Offensive body odor and poor personal hygiene is not professionally acceptable.
- Facial jewelry, such as eyebrow rings, nose rings, lip rings, and tongue studs, is not professionally appropriate and must not be worn during business hours.
- Multiple ear piercings (more than one ring in each ear) are not professionally appropriate and must not be worn during business hours.
- Visible excessive tattoos and similar body art must be covered during business hours.

7.5 RETURN OF PROPERTY

Employees are responsible for all Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. property, materials, or written information issued to them or in their possession or control. Employees must return all Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. property immediately upon request or upon termination of employment. Where permitted by applicable laws, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. may withhold from the employee's check or final paycheck the cost of any items that are not returned when required. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. may also take all action deemed appropriate to recover or protect its property.

7.6 RESIGNATION

Resignation is a voluntary act initiated by the employee to terminate employment with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. Although advance notice is not required, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. requests at least 2 weeks' written notice of resignation from employees. Prior to an employee's departure, an exit interview may be scheduled to discuss the reasons for resignation and the effect of the resignation on benefits.

7.7 SECURITY INSPECTIONS

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. wishes to maintain a work environment that is free of illegal drugs, alcohol, firearms, explosives, or other improper materials. To this end, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. prohibits the possession, transfer, sale, or use of such materials on its premises. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. requires the cooperation of all employees in administering this policy.

Desks, lockers, and other storage devices may be provided for the convenience of employees but remains the sole property of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc... Accordingly, they, as well as any articles found within them, can be inspected by any agent or representative of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. at any time, either with or without prior notice.
7.8 PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of this policy is to state Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. position on administering equitable and consistent discipline for unsatisfactory conduct in the workplace. The best disciplinary measure is the one that does not have to be enforced comes from good leadership and fair supervision at all employment levels.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. own best interest lies in ensuring fair treatment of all employees and in making certain that disciplinary actions are prompt, uniform, and impartial. The major purpose of any disciplinary action is to correct the problem, prevent recurrence, and prepare the employee for satisfactory service in the future.

Although employment with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is based on mutual consent and both the employee and Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause or advance notice, Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. may use progressive discipline at its discretion.

Disciplinary action may call for any of four steps – verbal warning, written warning, suspension with or without pay, or termination of employment – depending on the severity of the problem and the number of occurrences. There may be circumstances when one or more steps are bypassed.

Progressive discipline means that, with respect to most disciplinary problems, these steps will normally be followed: a first offense may call for a verbal warning; a next offense may be followed by a written warning; another offense may lead to a suspension; and, still another offense may then lead to termination of employment.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. recognizes that there are certain types of employee problems that are serious enough to justify either a suspension, or, in extreme situations, termination of employment, without going through the usual progressive discipline steps.

While it is impossible to list every type of behavior that may be deemed a serious offense, the Employee Conduct and Work Rules policy includes examples of problems that may result in immediate suspension or termination of employment. However, the problems listed are not all necessarily serious offenses, but may be examples of unsatisfactory conduct that will trigger progressive discipline.

By using progressive discipline, we hope that most employee problems can be corrected at an early stage, benefiting both the employee and Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc...

7.9 PROBLEM RESOLUTION

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. is committed to providing the best possible working conditions for its employees. Part of this commitment is encouraging an open and frank atmosphere in which any problem, complaint, suggestion, or question receives a timely response from Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. supervisors and management.

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. strives to ensure fair and honest treatment of all employees. Supervisors, managers, and employees are expected to treat each other with mutual respect. Employees are encouraged to offer positive and constructive criticism.

If employees disagree with established rules of conduct, policies, or practices, they can express their concern through the problem resolution procedure. No employee will be penalized, formally or informally, for voicing a complaint with Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. in a reasonable, business-like manner, or for using the problem resolution procedure.
If a situation occurs when employees believe that a condition of employment or a decision affecting them is unjust or inequitable, they are encouraged to make use of the following steps. The employee may discontinue the procedure at any step.

1. Employee presents problem to immediate supervisor after incident occurs. If supervisor is unavailable or employee believes it would be inappropriate to contact that person, employee may present problem to Management or any other member of management.

2. Supervisor responds to problem during discussion or after consulting with appropriate management, when necessary. Supervisor documents discussion.

3. Employee presents problem to Management if problem is unresolved.

4. Management counsels and advises employee, assists in putting problem in writing and visits with employee's manager(s), if necessary.

5. Employee presents problem to the President in writing.

6. The President reviews and considers problem. The President informs employee of decision and forwards copy of written response to Management for employee's file. The President has full authority to make any adjustment deemed appropriate to resolve the problem.

Not every problem can be resolved to everyone's total satisfaction, but only through understanding and discussion of mutual problems can employees and management develop confidence in each other. This confidence is important to the operation of an efficient and harmonious work environment, and helps to ensure everyone's job security.

7.10 WORKPLACE ETIQUETTE

Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. strives to maintain a positive work environment where employees treat each other with respect and courtesy. Sometimes issues arise when employees are unaware that their behavior in the workplace may be disruptive or annoying to others. Many of these day-to-day issues can be addressed by politely talking with a co-worker to bring the perceived problem to his or her attention. In most cases, common sense will dictate an appropriate resolution. Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. encourages all employees to keep an open mind and graciously accept constructive feedback or a request to change behavior that may be affecting another employee's ability to concentrate and be productive.

The following workplace etiquette guidelines are not necessarily intended to be hard and fast work rules with disciplinary consequences. They are simply suggestions for appropriate workplace behavior to help everyone be more conscientious and considerate of co-workers and the work environment. Please contact the Management] if you have comments, concerns, or suggestions regarding these workplace etiquette guidelines.

- Avoid public accusations or criticisms of other employees. Address such issues privately with those involved or your supervisor.
- Try to minimize unscheduled interruptions of other employees while they are working.
- Be conscious of how your voice travels, and try to lower the volume of your voice when talking on the phone or to others in open areas.
- Keep socializing to a minimum, and try to conduct conversations in areas where the noise will not be distracting to others.
- Try not to block walkways while carrying on conversations.
- Refrain from using inappropriate language (swearing) that others may overhear.
- Monitor the volume when listening to music, voice mail, or a speakerphone that others can hear.
• Clean up after yourself and do not leave behind waste or discarded papers.

7.11 SUGGESTION PROGRAM

As employees of Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc., you have the opportunity to contribute to our future success and growth by submitting suggestions for practical work-improvement or cost-savings ideas.

All employees are eligible to participate in the suggestion program.

A suggestion is an idea that will benefit Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. by solving a problem, reducing costs, improving operations or procedures, enhancing customer service, eliminating waste or spoilage, or making Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc. a better or safer place to work. Statements of problems without accompanying solutions, or recommendations concerning co-workers and management are not appropriate suggestions.

All suggestions should contain a description of the problem or condition to be improved, a detailed explanation of the solution or improvement, and the reasons why it should be implemented. If you have questions or need advice about your idea, contact your supervisor for help.

Submit suggestions to the President and, after review, they will be forwarded to the Direction. As soon as possible, you will be notified of the adoption or rejection of your suggestion.

Special recognition may be given to employees who submit a suggestion that is implemented.

IF YOU HAVE ANY COMMENTS OR SUGGESTIONS REGARDING THE CONTENT OF THE EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK, PLEASE DIRECT THEM TO MANAGEMENT.

WISHING YOU A LONG AND REWARDING CAREER AT Alpha Omega Medical Transportation, Inc.!
